

I support XM radio 100%. I use the traffic and weather channel frequently on my 45 minute commute to and from work. The informative and timely coverage available via XM is above any programming available locally. Since this is a pay service, I believe the NAB has no right to dictate what XM broadcasts.

Thanks,

Craig Parks